

Whether you are an experienced clinician or new to the field of substance abuse treatment, our curriculum can help prepare you to implement Contingency Management for Youth Addiction (CM-YA); an evidence-based treatment for addiction. Our certification program was developed with the funding support of the National Institute of Health, National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIH-NIDA) and was designed to encourage excellence in addictions treatment. You can choose to become certified in one or both models.

All training is Online, on-demand, and self-directed.

We offer 3 levels of learning:

Exposure	This level is designed for professionals who are interested in learning the CM-YA treatment model. This is an online course that offers all of the essentials to help you develop basic competency in this model. Professionals who complete the Exposure training will receive a certificate for 8 hours of continuing education training. 3 months Cost: $410
Level 1	This level provides the essentials of CM but builds your core skills with advanced conceptualization and individualized instruction from our expert Lead Trainers. Clinicians who complete the Level I certification can identify themselves as a certified CM-YA provider. This level of training is eligible for 12 hours of continuing education training. 12 Months Cost: $1,025
Level 2	This level includes everything you would receive in E Level and Level 1 training as well as specialty workshops designed for advanced professionals, individualized instruction, identification as a CM-YA Expert and the ability to then supervise providers in this model. This level of training is eligible for 15 hours of continuing education training. 18 Months Cost: $1,475

Costs are for training in one of the models. If you wish to become certified in both the CM-YA and CM-EA models you will be charged an additional $175 to cover the cost of the training materials and Lead Trainer Consultation.
